

'Conservatives Censor The Truth'

"Senator Lynn Beyak has been removed from the Senate's 'Aboriginal Peoples' committee, interim 'Conservative' Leader Rona Ambrose told 'CBC News' in an interview Wednesday. Ambrose said she made the decision jointly with the newly-minted leader of the Conservative caucus in the Senate, Larry Smith.

Because of the incredible ignorance exhibited by people like Rona Ambrose, we will be republishing an expanded version of our series on the positive aspects of the Residential Schools. It is intolerable that Canada should move into the future with EVERY Canadian political party repeating the same historical lies, due to their sheer lack of historical knowledge.

As we reprint these stories, we ask you to please share them as widely as possible, to help counter the propaganda of the 'Partial Truth and One-way Reconciliation Commission'. Our children deserve a far more balanced picture of our Nation's past...

“Some Conservative senators are standing by colleague Lynn Beyak a day after she was removed from the Senate’s ‘Aboriginal Peoples’ committee for defending the residential school system...

“Conservative Quebec Senator Ghislain Maltais, chair of the agriculture committee, told Beyak,

“Every member of the caucus supports you.”

“Maltais then left to bring in a ‘Parliamentary Protective Service’ officer to remove CBC reporters, but was rebuffed...

“Beyak told reporters she had no comment about the decision.

“It never quits, does it?” she said.

“Beyak has endorsed Maxime Bernier for leader of the Conservative Party. Bernier said Thursday that Beyak’s comments were

“not in line with our party’s stand on this.” {!!!!}
